

The United Shield Police Tactical Shield is a highly maneuverable micro shield, which is lightweight, weighing just 3.7lbs, and is ergonomically designed to ensure maximum protection in all tactical situations. The shield has an integrated weapon mount, allowing one handed operation of rifles and handguns.

The Police Tactical Shield has ambidextrous and collapsible handles for ease of use and storage, while the asymmetrical configuration of the handles ensures that the shield hangs in the vertical position while being used.
